Albaugh's Opera House. — The name of Clara Louise Kellogg is inextricably inter-woven with all the memories of American musical matters during many years, and it still possesses a potency that is undeniable. Her reappearance in opera this season brings up a cloud of pleasant recollections, and she will no doubt be welcomed back to Washington next week with genuine warmth. She will sing at week with genuine warmth. She will sing at four of the seven performances, in "Trovatore" on Monday and Saturday matinee, "Faust" on Wednesday, and "Carmen" on Friday. Miss Kellogg has in her company a number of artists of high standing in operatic work, including Messrs. Labatt and Perugini and Mme. Helen Van Doenhof. In addition the company carries with it a ballet there will promised, will be put upon the stage with care, while the prices of admission remain as usual.

NATIONAL THEATER.—While Jefferson's Bob Acres has been familiar to theater-goers for almost a generation, it is a creation of such genuine artistic merit that it is perennially young and fresh and always repays another view. Mrs. Drew's Mrs. Malaprop is almost equally familiar to Washington audiences and wears equally well. But John Gilbert as Sir Anthony will be a novelty to most local theater patrons, and hence it will be a highly important feature of next week's presentation of "The Rivals" at the National theater. Miss Emma Vaders, an actress of merit, is also a member of Mr. Jefferson's company. The advance sale of seats indicates a large week's business. THE WILHELMJ CLUB CONCERT at the Universalist church this evening will be an interesting musical event, the program possessing more

The club will be assisted by Dr. Hopkinson, o Baltimore, a baritone of merit, and Miss Roberta Allen, a talented young violinist. HARRIS' BLIOU THEATER. - Miss Ada Gilman will appear at the Bijou next week in a play called "Bubbling Over," a title which no doubt is intended to convey an idea of the amount of fun and amusement in the performance. Miss Gilman is said to be a pretty and vivacious little woman, and she is assisted in entertaining the audiences by Frank Lester. a dialect comedian, and other specialty people.

GLOBE THEATER.—Fox & Ward's all star specialty company is the bill at this place of amusement for next week. The people in the troupe are Matthews and Harris, Alex. Wilson, Fostell and Emmett, the "Brilliant Four. Harry and Flora Blake, Fox and Ward, the Grieves and Joe Miller. KERNAN'S THEATER. - Sheffer & Blakely's refined specialty and comedy company hold the boards at Kernan's next week. Among the popular specialty artists in the troupe are Sheffer and Blakely, the noted negro delineators; Adams, Cary and Howard, musical trio; Sherman and Morrisey, in their "bifurcation" act; Crossley and Elder, in athletics; Emilie

Peare, vocalist; Roach and Castleton; Senora Tatali, a Cuban contortionist, and Dan Regan, the singer and banjoist. ODD FELLOWS' ENTERTAINMENTS .- The first of a series of entertainments by the uniformed branch of Odd Fellows will take place at Na-tional Rifles' hall. THE CHRISTMAS CLUB.—The interest taken in the proposed Christmas dinner to the poor children of this place is on the increase, as the attendance at the meeting vesterday afternoon in the superintendent's office of the Curtis school building was much larger than at previous meetings. This had the effect of encouraging the members of the club, and already a number of young ladies are cut soliciting donations. The usual badges have been printed and are now offered for sale. It was determined at this meeting to appoint Saturday after Christmas as the day for the dinner, which will be spread in the two play rooms of the Curtis building in the afternoon. about 1:30 o'clock. It was also determin that the ages of the children to be entertained should range from four to fourteen years inclusive. There will no doubt be an increase ner over previous ones, and as there were about 545 little ones fed last year, it is safe to diate shades.

with the times. Our assortment of colors comprises white, black, and hundreds of intermediate shades. Place the number at 600 this year.
